

Sammen, Student Welfare Organization in Western Norway

All students at BAS pay a fee to Sammen, the Student Welfare Organization in Western Norway. That gives you access to all Sammen`s offers. Sammen runs gyms, kindergartens, health services, homes, cafes and more. Some of the services are free for you as a student, and the prices must otherwise be competitive and as affordable as possible for students.

In order to be a valid student and have student discounts, you need a sticker on your student ID card. You will be able to pick this sticker up at BAS by the beginning of each semester:
